THE LITURGY OF THE WORD

THE FIRST READING

Jeremiah 1:4-9

Proclaimed in Hawaiian by Akoni Derige

The word of the LORD came to me: Before I formed you in the womb I knew you, before you were born I dedicated you, a prophet to the nations I appointed you. “Ah, Lord GOD!” I said, “I do not know how to speak. I am too young!” But the LORD answered me, Do not say, “I am too young.” To whomever I send you, you shall go; whatever I command you, you shall speak. Do not be afraid of them, for I am with you to deliver you—oracle of the LORD. Then the LORD extended his hand and touched my mouth, saying to me, See, I place my words in your mouth!

Lector: The Word of the Lord.

All: Thanks be to God.

THE PSALM

Psalm 96:1-2, 2-3, 7-8, 9-10

Sing to the LORD, sing a new song' sing to the Lord, all you lands.
Sing the LORD, bless his name. R.

Announce his salvation, day after day. Tell his glory among all the lands; among all peoples, his wondrous deeds. R.

Give to the LORD, you families of nations, give the LORD glory and praise;
give to the LORD, the glory due his name! R.

Worship the LORD in holy attire. Tremble before, all the earth; say among the nations: The LORD is King. He governs his people with equity. R.

THE SECOND READING

Acts 6:1-11

Proclaimed by Jonathan Lewis

At that time, as the number of disciples continued to grow, the Hellenists complained against the Hebrews because their widows were being neglected in the daily distribution. So the Twelve called together the community of the disciples and said, “It is not right for us to neglect the word of God to serve at table. Brothers, select from among you seven reputable men, filled with the Spirit and wisdom, whom we shall appoint to this task, whereas we shall devote ourselves to prayer and to the ministry of the word.” The proposal was acceptable to the whole community, so they chose Stephen, a man filled with faith and the holy Spirit, also Philip, Prochorus, Nicanor, Timon, Parmenas, and Nicholas of Antioch, a convert to Judaism. They presented these men to the apostles who prayed and laid hands on them. The word of God continued to spread, and the number of the disciples in Jerusalem increased greatly; even a large group of priests were becoming obedient to the faith.

Lector: The Word of the Lord.

All: Thanks be to God.

Please stand.

ALLELUIA

THE GOSPEL

Matthew 20:25-28

Proclaimed by Deacon Ronald Paglinawan

Deacon: The Lord be with you.

All: And with your spirit.

Deacon: A reading from the holy Gospel according to Matthew.

All: Glory to you, O Lord.

But Jesus summoned them and said, “You know that the rulers of the Gentiles lord it over them, and the great ones make their authority over them felt. But it shall not be so among you. Rather, whoever wishes to be great among you shall be your servant; whoever wishes to be first among you shall be your slave. Just so, the Son of Man did not come to be served but to serve and to give his life as a ransom for many.”

Deacon: The Gospel of the Lord.

All: Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

RITE OF ORDINATION

PRESENTATION OF THE CANDIDATES

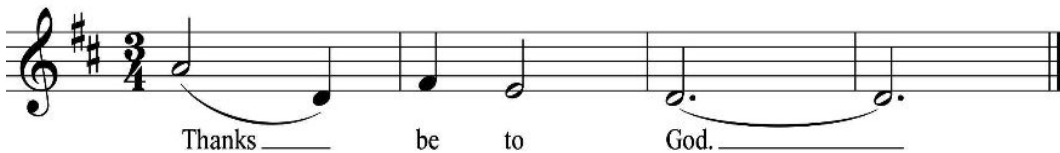

Those to be ordained are called forth by Deacon Paglinawan. After they have come forward, the Director of Formation, Father Steven Petroff, CSP presents them to the Church and asks the Bishop to ordain them.

ELECTION BY THE BISHOP AND CONSENT OF THE PEOPLE

After inquiring if they are worthy to be ordained, the Bishop accepts the request.

Bishop: Relying on the help of the Lord God and our Savior Jesus Christ, we choose these, our brothers, for the Order of the Diaconate.

The people give their assent by applause. All sing:

HOMILY

MOST REVEREND MATTHEW ELSHOFF, OFM, CAP.

PROMISES OF THE ELECT

There are six promises to be made by those who are to be ordained.

PROMISE OF OBEDIENCE

After having made these promises, those to be ordained go before the Bishop and make a promise of obedience. As each does so, he kneels before the Bishop and places his hands between those of the Bishop. The Bishop asks him: "Do you promise respect and obedience to me and my successors?"

Please stand for the Introduction to the Litany.

LITANY OF SUPPLICATION

Each of the elect then prostrates himself and the Litany of the Saints is sung. This prayer asks for the intercession of the Saints in order that God may look favorably upon those to be ordained. A prayer follows, asking that the Holy Spirit may be poured upon them. While these prayers are being prayed, the faithful are to join their prayers for the elect to those of the Bishop.

Please Kneel

The people respond: Amen.

Please stand.

LAYING ON OF HANDS

The gift of the Holy Spirit is conferred upon those to be ordained by the laying on of hands and the Prayer of Ordination. The laying on of hands has its origin in Sacred Scripture and signifies the conferral of the Holy Spirit through whose power the elect are ordained.

PRAYER OF ORDINATION

The Prayer of Ordination recalls the vocation of the first seven men of good repute to assist the Apostles in their daily ministry. It asks that the Holy Spirit's gift of sevenfold grace be sent upon the elect to carry out of the ministry of the Deacon and asks that every Gospel virtue abound in each Deacon for concern of the sick and the poor.

The people respond: Amen.

Please be seated.

Rejoice in God all the earth: serve the Lord in gladness.

HANDING ON OF THE BOOK OF GOSPELS

The Bishop places the Book of the Gospels in the hands of each Deacon and says: "Receive the Gospel of Christ, whose herald you have become. Believe what you read, teach what you believe, and practice what you teach."

SIGN OF PEACE

Seek to Serve by Lloyd Pfautsch

The Bishop and the Deacons present give the sign of peace to the newly ordained and welcome them as a fellow coworker in their shared ministry.

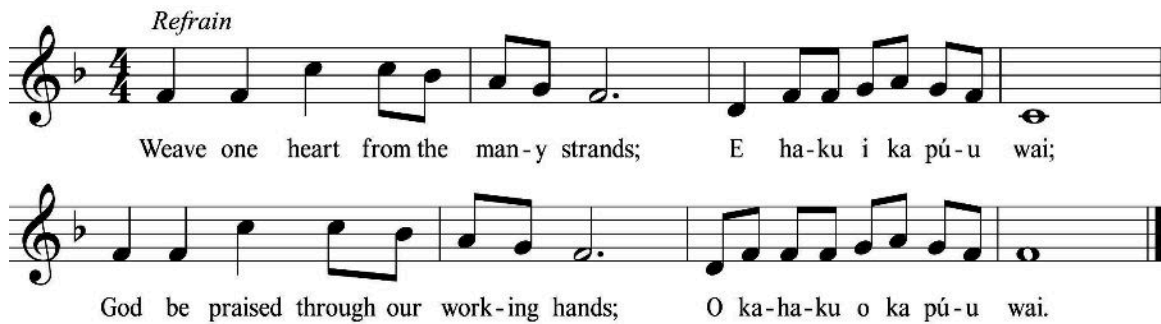

May I live in the world as one who always seeks to serve. May I live as one who knows the love of God.
Lord teach me how to live and how to serve. With my words may I hear. With my eyes may I see.
With my lips may I speak. May your word be heard through me. Thus as I live each day may love sustain the will to serve.
